Safety Role Holders

The Safety Office has recently developed a Safety Training Matrix detailing the training that those responsible for or who are appointed to one or more safety roles either must or should complete.

The matrix indicates where refresher training is required and at what intervals.

Should you have any questions please contact CUED Safety Office.